About Us

We have maintained relationships with our customers and partners since Global Event & Interiors was founded. With increasing growth, we could gather experience together with our partners and customers and possibly learn from each other. We work with startups as well as established international companies from various industries.

A workplace move or refurbishment is a big deal for any business. It is a significant investment and a process that will also bring change some forced, some welcome and you will need to define and integrate both into your business. In doing so you will want to get it right, create as much value as possible and deliver the best possible return on your investment.

We understand how workplace projects can divert your Corporate Estate Team's energy and attention away from its 'day job'. Global Event & Interiors first priority is to provide you with an experienced, engaged and capable partner who you can rely on to share the load.

We attentively listen to your needs and respond to them in a complete, imaginative and timely manner. Offering sound, evidence based solutions and the necessary leadership to prioritize the inevitable competing issues and drivers.

Our approach and methods have been developed and honed in collaboration with our Clients - placing their needs firmly at the heart of all that we do. We concentrate on what is agreed to be important for the success of each individual project and focus on bringing about its delivery at both strategic operational and detailed levels.
